

Research Process: Annotated Bibliography

Student Name: _____

CATEGORY	Excellent (20)	Commendable (15)	Satisfactory (10)	Submitted (5)
Annotation: Summarize	Annotations provide a complete and thorough summary of the topic and main arguments presented in each reference source.	Annotations provide a brief and/or basic summary of the topic and main arguments presented in each reference source.	Annotations provide some information concerning the topic and main arguments presented in each reference source.	Annotations provide little to no information concerning the topic and main arguments presented in each reference source.
Quality of Sources	Sources were professional and reliable. They would be acceptable for research purposes.	Sources were professional but not reliable. They would not necessarily be recommended for research purposes.	Sources were neither professional nor reliable. They would not be acceptable to use for research.	No sources were given.
Annotation: Reflect	Annotations present a clear, personal reflection on how each source contributed to the ideas to be set forth in the poster.	Annotations present a brief and/or basic reflection on how each source contributed to the ideas to be set forth in the poster.	Annotations present some reflection on how each source contributed to the ideas to be set forth in the poster.	Annotations present little to no personal reflection on how each source contributed to the ideas to be set forth in the poster.
Conventions (grammar, spelling, punctuation, etc)	Writer makes no errors in grammar or spelling that distract the reader from the content. Writer makes no errors in capitalization or punctuation, so the paper is exceptionally easy to read	Writer makes 1-2 errors in grammar or spelling that distract the reader from the content. Writer makes 1 or 2 errors in capitalization or punctuation, but the paper is still easy to read.	Writer makes more than 3 errors in grammar or spelling that distract the reader from the content. Writer makes several errors in capitalization and/or punctuation that catch the reader's attention and greatly interrupt the flow.	Writer makes citations and annotations unreadable.
Bibliography: Proper Format	Bibliography is presented in proper APA format	Bibliography is not presented in proper APA format		